

The Town of Petersfield: Local Government

Petersfield Town Council comprises of 12 elected members.

East Hampshire District Council is made up of 44 councillors elected every four years. Councillors are democratically accountable to the residents of their ward.

Pray:

- ... for wisdom for the leaders of Town and District Councillors as they make decisions that affect those who live in our town and area.
- ... for our mayor, currently (September 2016) James Deane that he might wisely lead the Town Council.
- ... for all councilors as they apply national government laws and regulations to the local environment.
- ... for the administrative staff who deal with day-to-day situations in our area and carry out the directives of the councils.
- ... for those who live in the area that they may play their part in voting for councillors, taking note of local events and activities and being responsible members of our society.
- ... for Christians to make their voice heard in local politics in a Godly way.
- ... for all the projects and initiatives currently undertaken by the Town and District council.
